About

Senior Frontend Engineer with 10+ years of experience in web development, focused on TypeScript, React, and Next.js.

Building digital solutions, including high-traffic web projects, with frontend and component architecture, Design Systems, SSR/SSG/ISR rendering strategies, Design-to-Code, technical SEO, accessibility and performance.

I contribute to requirements gathering and cross-functional alignment across clients, design, and development. I also coordinate workstreams, manage tasks, make technical decisions, and work closely with partners and collaborators.

As a full-stack developer, I lead end-to-end projects as needed, primarily working with Node.js, APIs, headless CMS, and integrations.
